

2011326083

Contents

Abbreviations	ix
Glossary	xi
Preface	xiii
1. The Pakistan Context	1
Political Structure	1
Demography	3
Poverty in Pakistan	4
Physical Conditions	5
Unequal Development	7
Government Programmes for Poverty Alleviation	8
Impact of Structural Adjustment, WTO Regime, and Globalisation	10
2. The Geographic Setting and its Relation to Sociology and Migration	13
The Northern Mountains	13
The Western Highlands	16
The Indus Plains	17
The Eastern Deserts	18
3. Migration to Pakistan	19
The Development of the Punjab Canal Colonies	19
The 1947 Migration from India:	20
– The Socio-economic Impact	23
– The Physical Impact	24
– The Case of Sindh	24
Migration as a Result of the India–Pakistan Wars:	25
– The Kashmir War 1947–1948	25
– The 1965 and the 1971 Wars	26
Migration as a Result of the Afghan Conflict	28

The Bengali and the Burmese Migrations	30
Some Related Issues	31
4. Rural–Urban Migration	33
Scale of Migration	33
Causes of Migration	34
Process of Migration	37
Physical Impact of Migration	41
Social Impact	43
The Political Impact	46
5. Emigration	48
Causes of Emigration	49
Scale and Destinations	51
Foreign Remittances and their Impact on Pakistan's Economy	53
The Socio–economic Impact of Foreign Remittances	54
Human Smuggling and Trafficking	57
The Makran Emigration	58
Role of Emigrant Organisations in the Socio–economic Development in Pakistan	59
Emigration and Remittance Processes:	63
– Legal Processes	63
– Illegal Emigration	65
– Formal and Informal Remittance Processes	67
The Response of the State	68
6. Small Towns in Pakistan	71
Small Indus Valley Towns in History:	71
– Changes due to Colonisation	72
– Changes since Independence	74
– New Directions	74
Demographic Change and Small Towns	74
7. Three Small Towns	79
Choice of Towns	79
Reasons for the Choice	79

Mithi	81
– Social Structure	82
– Seasonal Migration	83
– Process of Change	83
– Reasons for Migration to Mithi	84
– Repercussions of Migration in the Rural Areas	85
– Reasons for Migration from Mithi	86
– Impact of Migration on Tharparkar	86
– Process of Migration	88
– Governance and Migration	88
Uch	89
– The Old Social Structure	90
– Process of Change	92
– Reasons for Migration to Uch	93
– Effect on the Rural Areas	93
– Reasons for Migration/Emigration from Uch	94
– Impact of Migration and Emigration	95
– Process of Migration	98
– Governance	98
Chiniot	99
– Social Structure	100
– Process of Change	102
– Reasons for Migration to Chiniot	103
– Reasons for Emigration from Chiniot	104
– Impact of Emigration on Chiniot	104
– Process of Migration	106
– Governance	106
8. Broad Conclusions	109
Appendix 1. Excerpts from Interviews	111
Appendix 2. Tables	154
– Table 1: Pakistan—Population Size, Rural, Urban Ratio and Growth Rate, 1901–1998	154
– Table 2: Physical Conditions—Pakistan	155
– Table 3: Karachi: Demographic Change due to Partition	156
– Table 4: Languages Spoken—Pakistan/Provinces	156

- Table 5: Migrant Population by Place of Previous Residence: Pakistan, 1981 and 1998	158
- Table 6: Migrant Population by Place of Birth, 1998 Census	160
- Table 7: Migrant Population by Reason of Migration, 1998 Census	161
- Table 8: The Status of Migrant Population in the Urban Areas of Pakistan as a Whole and its Provinces, 1981-98	162
- Table 9: Sources of Urban Growth	163
- Table 10: Number of Pakistani Emigrants, 1971 to January 2007	164
- Table 11: Countries of Destination	165
- Table 12: Development in Economic Growth and Worker's Remittances	166
- Table 13: Urban Population Distribution, 1951-1998	168
- Table 14: Pakistan: Urban Localities—Population and Growth, 1951-1998	169
- Table 15: Cities of Different Sizes	172
- Table 16: Mitthi Taluka (Sub-District); Selected Socio-economic indicators 1981 and 1998	174
- Table 17: Ahmad Pur Tehsil (Sub-District); Selected socio-economic indicators 1981 and 1998	177
- Table 18: Chiniot Tehsil (Sub-District); Selected Socio-economic indicators 1981 and 1998	181
- Table 19: Selected Indicators of Education for Bahawalpur, Jhang and Tharparkar Districts	185
- Table 20: Health facilities Bahawalpur, Jhang and Tharparkar districts	189
- Table 21: 1998 Person per facility in the three districts	191
Index	193